4. [REDACTED] When we met with Ralph Preston and Chuck Snodgrass, staff of the House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee, I left with Snodgrass the transcripts of the Director's testimony of 2 and 3 March 1971 and 3 February 1972 along with a copy of [REDACTED] 8 June 1972 Memo for the Record of the Director's 1 June 1972 briefing. Also included were copies of pertinent excerpts which he had requested.

I also picked up from Preston a memorandum addressed to me on the request from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce inviting the Director to speak to a luncheon meeting of that group on 24 October. I told Preston I had taken this up with the Director who said he would be happy to accept the invitation and we are checking the Director's schedule for that date before making a commitment.

Preston mentioned that Edward Roeder, former employee of the House Select Committee on Intelligence, had been in touch with him on the question of the storage of Committee transcripts with the Agency. He said Roeder was planning to write an article and apparently was going to include some reference to this in it. I told Preston I found this particularly interesting and mentioned the fact that during the period of the House Select Committee reorganization, Roeder had attempted to obtain information from one of our proprietaries without prior contact or clearance from us. I also raised a question as to the Committee rules and regulations regarding publication of articles of former members of the Select Committee staff. Rather interestingly, Snodgrass chimed in that regulations to that effect applied to the Pike Select Committee but not to the Committee as it was constituted under Chairman Nedzi.

In talking about the Defense Subcommittee's recent trip to the Far East, Snodgrass repeated a comment he had made earlier to [REDACTED]
